

Drama

Suggested Combination:	Drama, English, then choose from any other subject
The great thing about the academic pathway is that it allows you to choose 3 Subjects. This gives you the advantage of choosing a wide range of future careers. Below we have included a sample of future pathways associated with a Drama direction. To find out more information and possible future pathways for this Subject combination log on to UNIFROG by following this link https://www.unifrog.org/student/subjects
Possible Degrees	BA/BFA in Drama and Theatre Studies, BA in Acting, BFA in Acting, BA/BFA in Theatre Arts, BA/BFA in Playwriting, BA/BFA in Dramaturgy
Possible Careers and Apprenticeships	Actor/Actress: Perform on stage, in films, or on television, bringing characters to life. Theatre Director: Direct and oversee the production of plays or theatrical performances. Playwright: Write original plays, scripts, or screenplays. Dramaturg: Analyse and provide insights on scripts, supporting the development of theatrical works. Stage Manager: Coordinate and manage the technical and artistic aspects of a theatrical production. Set Designer: Design the sets and visual elements for theatrical productions. Costume Designer: Create costumes for characters in plays, films, or television productions. Theatre Educator: Teach drama and theatre studies at various educational levels. Editor/Proof-reader: Review and refine written content for publishing.