

Humanities

Suggested Combination:	History, then choose two from English, Geography, Criminology or Sociology
The great thing about the academic pathway is that it allows you to choose 3 Subjects. This gives you the advantage of choosing a wide range of future careers. Below we have included a sample of future pathways associated with a Humanities direction. To find out more information and possible future pathways for this Subject combination log on to UNIFROG by following this link https://www.unifrog.org/student/subjects
Possible Degrees	BA in English Literature, BA in History, BA/BSc in Humanities BA in Humanities and Social Sciences, BA in Cultural Studies, BA in Comparative Literature, BA Sociology.
Possible Careers and Apprenticeships	Historian: Conduct research, analyse historical events, and contribute to the understanding of the past. Archivist: Preserve and organise historical documents and records. Museum Curator: Manage and curate exhibits in museums, preserving and showcasing artifacts. Editor/Proof-reader: Review and refine written content for publishing. Writer/Author: Create fiction, non-fiction, or journalistic works. Journalist: Report news and write articles for newspapers, magazines, or online publications. Librarian: Manage library resources and assist patrons in research. Educator: Teach history, English, or humanities at various educational levels.